How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit the Jefferson Central Appraisal District website at https://jcad.org/ to download protest forms and review property information, or call (409) 840-9944 for assistance.
2. File your Notice of Protest with Jefferson Central Appraisal District before May 15, 2026, or within 30 days of receiving your assessment notice, whichever is later.
3. Collect evidence including recent comparable sales, photographs, blueprints, surveys, property measurements, and documentation of any defects or incorrect property descriptions.
4. Meet with a JCAD appraiser for an informal review after filing your protest to present your evidence and potentially resolve the issue without a formal hearing.
5. Request a copy of the appraisal district's hearing evidence at no cost, which you are entitled to receive before your formal hearing date.

6. If informal negotiations fail, present your case to the Jefferson County Appraisal Review Board at the scheduled hearing, which will be at least 15 days after you receive written notice.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 7455 Prestwick Cir is currently appraised by the county at $413,115. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $103. Applied to my home's 3,193 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $327,971. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
