How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the NYC Tax Commission at (212) 669-4410 to verify current filing requirements and deadlines for your property tax class. Have your property's borough, block, and lot information ready.
2. Examine your Notice of Property Value (NOPV) from the Department of Finance, paying special attention to page 3 which indicates whether you should file an appeal with the Tax Commission.
3. Visit https://www.nyc.gov/site/taxcommission/forms/forms.page and download Form TC600 (How to Appeal a Tentative Assessment) and the appropriate application form (TC108 for Class 1 properties or TC101 for Class 2/4 properties).
4. Fill out all required forms completely, including any necessary supporting documentation. If your property's assessed value is $2 million or more, note that a $175 fee applies which will be added to your property tax bill.
5. File your completed application at the Tax Commission office located at 1 Centre Street, Room 2400, New York, NY 10007, or mail it to arrive before the deadline. Keep a copy for your records.
6. Monitor your appeal status by calling (212) 669-4410 with your property's borough, block, and lot information, or email specific inquiries to the appropriate Tax Commission email address.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 250 E 54Th St. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
