How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Office of Property Assessment at (215) 686-9200 to discuss your property assessment and request a First Level Review if you believe your assessment is incorrect.
2. Visit https://www.phila.gov/documents/property-assessment-appeal-documents-and-forms/ to download the Board of Revision of Taxes appeal application form.
3. Gather evidence including recent sales of comparable properties, photos of your property showing condition issues, repair estimates, and a professional appraisal if available.
4. Submit your completed appeal application to the Board of Revision of Taxes at The Curtis Center, 601 Walnut Street, Suite 325 East, Philadelphia, PA 19106 by mail, in person Monday-Friday 8:30 AM-4:30 PM, or email the PDF to appealinquiry@phila.gov.

5. If using expert testimony, submit three hard copies and one electronic copy of the full USPAP-compliant appraisal report within 45 days of your scheduled hearing date.
6. Attend your scheduled hearing at the Board of Revision of Taxes, which will be scheduled approximately 45-90 days after filing, and present your evidence to support your appeal.
7. If the BRT denies your appeal, you may file an appeal with the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas where a judge will review the case.
8. For disputes about taxes owed rather than assessment value, contact the Tax Review Board at (215) 686-5216 or file a petition at 100 South Broad Street, Room 400, Philadelphia, PA 19110.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1122 Hall St is currently appraised by the county at $720,600. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $198. Applied to my home's 2,127 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $420,654. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
