How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Richland Parish Assessor's Office at (318) 728-4491 to request a property tax appeal form and discuss your property assessment with staff members available Monday through Friday 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.
2. Visit http://rpao.org/ to view your current property assessment online and compare it to similar properties in your neighborhood to determine if you have grounds for appeal.
3. Collect evidence to support your appeal including recent sales data of comparable properties, photos of property defects, professional assessments of structural issues, and verify all details on your property record card.
4. File your written appeal using the Board of Review form during the 15-day public inspection period between August 15th and September 15th either in person at 708 Julia Street Room 115, Rayville, LA 71269, by certified mail, or by facsimile.
5. Present your case to the Richland Parish Board of Review which meets for 10 days beginning on the 8th day after the assessment lists close, bringing all supporting documentation and evidence of overassessment.
6. If the Board of Review denies your appeal, file a written appeal to the Louisiana Tax Commission using Form 3103.A within the required timeframe to contest the Board's decision.

Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 668 Midway Church Ln, currently appraised at $131,270. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
