How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Stark County Assessor at (701) 456-7671 to discuss your property assessment and request an informal review if you believe it is overvalued.
2. If unsatisfied after the informal review, file a written appeal with your local board of equalization before the second Monday in April if you live in a township, or before the second Tuesday in April if you live in a city.
3. Gather evidence supporting your claim including comparable property sales, photographs of your property, recent appraisals, and any documentation showing why your assessment is excessive.
4. If still unsatisfied after the local board meeting, appeal to the Stark County Board of Equalization which meets within the first 10 days of June, or you may bypass the local board and appeal directly to the county board.
5. If necessary, appeal to the State Board of Equalization which meets on the second Tuesday in August, but you must have appeared before both local and county boards to qualify for state board review.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 966 25Th St W is currently appraised by the county at $314,800, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $157,400 at ND's 50% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $194. Applied to my home's 922 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $178,812. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
