How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Chittenden County Assessor's Office at (802) 878-1345 to request a property tax appeal form and confirm the current filing deadline for 2026 appeals.
2. Submit a written grievance letter to your town's Board of Listers on or before the grievance hearing date specified in your change of appraisal notice, typically occurring between mid-May and early June.
3. Attend the scheduled grievance hearing with your local Board of Listers to present evidence supporting your property value appeal, including comparable sales, photographs, or appraisal reports.
4. If unsatisfied with the listers' decision, file a written appeal with your town clerk within 14 days of the mailing date of the grievance decision letter listing your grounds for appeal.
5. Participate in the Board of Civil Authority hearing and mandatory site inspection of your property, presenting additional evidence to support your assessment appeal.
6. If the BCA denies your appeal, file an appeal with either the Vermont Department of Taxes at 133 State Street, Montpelier, VT 05633-1401 within 60 days or Vermont Superior Court within 30 days.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 48 Arrowhead Ave is currently appraised by the county at $338,000. However, I've gathered 7 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $264. Applied to my home's 960 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $253,077. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
