How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the City of Providence Tax Assessor's Office at (401) 680-5229 to obtain the property tax appeal form and confirm the filing deadline for your property. If this link doesn't work, call (401) 680-5229.
2. Submit your completed Application for Appeal of Property Tax form to the Tax Assessor's Office at 25 Dorrance Street, Room 208, Providence, RI 02903 within ninety (90) days from the date the first tax payment is due.
3. Compile comparable property sales data, photographs of property condition issues, and consider obtaining a professional appraisal to support your claim that the property is overvalued or incorrectly classified.
4. The assessor has forty-five (45) days to review your appeal and notify you of their decision. Mark your calendar to track this deadline.

5. If the assessor denies your appeal or doesn't respond within 45 days, file an appeal with the Board of Tax Assessment Review (BTAR) within thirty (30) days of the assessor's decision or within ninety (90) days if no decision was issued.
6. Present your case at the scheduled Board of Tax Assessment Review hearing, bringing all evidence, documentation, and testimony to support your property tax appeal.
7. If the BTAR denies your appeal, you may file a petition in Providence County Superior Court at 250 Benefit Street, Providence, RI 02903 within thirty (30) days of the BTAR's decision.
8. Pay all property taxes as they become due throughout the appeal process to preserve your appeal rights and avoid interest charges or penalties.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 24 Walker St is currently appraised by the county at $554,000. However, I've gathered 5 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $122. Applied to my home's 3,342 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $408,011. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
