How to File Your Appeal

1. Call your town or city assessor's office to request a property tax appeal form since Kennebec County does not have a county-wide assessor. Augusta residents call (207) 626-2320.
2. Fill out the property tax abatement application stating your grounds for appeal, including your proposed property value and why you believe your assessment is incorrect.
3. Collect evidence such as recent sales of comparable properties, previous appraisals, expert opinions, or documentation of property condition to support your claim of overassessment.
4. File your written abatement application within 185 days of your municipality's tax commitment date, which typically occurs just before tax bills are mailed in August.

5. The assessor has 60 days to respond to your application and may request additional information through a 706A Request, which you must provide to preserve appeal rights.
6. If your abatement is denied or you're unsatisfied with the decision, file an appeal with your municipal Board of Assessment Review within 60 days of the assessor's decision.
7. If the Board of Assessment Review denies your appeal, you may appeal to Maine Superior Court within 30 days or to the State Board of Property Tax Review within 60 days for properties valued at $1 million or more.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 15 Abby Ln is currently appraised by the county at $476,000. However, I've gathered 15 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $278. Applied to my home's 1,232 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $343,089. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
