How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the York County Assessor's Office at (402) 362-4926 to discuss your property valuation concerns and request an informal review of your assessment before filing a formal protest.
2. Download Form 422 (Property Valuation Protest) from the Nebraska Department of Revenue website at revenue.nebraska.gov/about/forms/pad-forms, or pick up a copy at the York County Clerk's office at 510 N Lincoln Ave, 1st Floor, York, NE 68467.
3. Collect evidence to support your appeal including recent sales of comparable properties, photographs of property conditions, professional appraisals dated January 1, and any documentation showing errors in the property record file.
4. Fill out the Property Valuation Protest Form 422 with a detailed written statement explaining why the valuation should be changed, include your requested valuation, and file it with the York County Clerk between June 1 and June 30.
5. Present your case at the York County Board of Equalization hearing, which occurs between June 1 and July 25, where you can provide testimony and additional evidence to support your valuation protest.

6. Wait for the County Board of Equalization's written decision, which must be issued by August 2 and will be mailed to you by the County Clerk within the statutory timeframe.

7. If dissatisfied with the Board's decision, file an appeal with the Nebraska Tax Equalization and Review Commission (TERC) between July 26 and August 24 by completing the TERC appeal form and paying the required filing fee.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 316 W 24Th St is currently appraised by the county at $288,655. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $143. Applied to my home's 1,664 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $237,438. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
