How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit https://www.tad.org/ and create an online account using your Online PIN from your Value Notice to file Form 50-132 (Notice of Protest) through the TAD dashboard, or call (817) 284-0024 to request the form by mail.
2. Submit the completed Notice of Protest Form (Form 50-132) online through your TAD dashboard, by mail to 2500 Handley-Ederville Road, Fort Worth, TX 76118, or in person at the same address by the filing deadline.
3. Collect documentation to support your claim including recent comparable sales within 2 miles of your property from the last 6-12 months, photos of property defects or needed repairs, improvement receipts, and any professional appraisals showing lower values.
4. Call the number on your appraisal notice or (817) 284-0024 to discuss your concerns with an appraiser before your ARB hearing, or use the TAD online portal to attempt informal resolution through their system.
5. If informal resolution fails, attend your scheduled Appraisal Review Board (ARB) hearing in June or July 2026 to present your evidence supporting a lower property value assessment.
6. If unsatisfied with the ARB decision, you may appeal to district court or request binding arbitration within 30 days of receiving the ARB's certified order, though fees and deposits are required for these options.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 717 McAdoo Dr, Arlington, TX 76002 is currently appraised by the county at $335,356. However, I've gathered 12 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $124. Applied to my home's 2,160 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $267,033. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
