How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit MyTax.DC.gov to file your first-level administrative appeal with the Office of Tax and Revenue. You must file on or before April 1, 2026, or within 45 days of property purchase if you are a new owner. If this link doesn't work, call (202) 727-4829 for assistance.

2. Collect evidence for your appeal including recent appraisals, settlement statements, comparable property sales data, photographs showing property condition, and assessment data from similar properties. All corporations, LLCs, trusts, or tax agents must complete a notarized Letter of Agent Authorization (LOAA).

3. Participate in your first-level appeal hearing with the assessor, which can be conducted in-person, by telephone, or in writing. Present your evidence showing why the assessment is incorrect based on market value, equalization, classification, or property condition.

4. If your first-level appeal is denied, file an appeal with the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission (RPTAC) within 45 days of receiving your administrative appeal decision notice. File online through MyTax.DC.gov. For commercial properties, also complete Schedule A Form - Property Information Sheet.

5. Complete the Real Property Assessments Appeal Form and submit all supporting evidence when filing with RPTAC at 441 4th Street, NW, Suite 360 North, Washington, DC 20001. Indicate whether you want an in-person hearing, telephone hearing, or non-appearance review.

6. Appear before the Commission for your scheduled hearing with your estimate of correct market value and explanation of assessment errors. The Office of Tax and Revenue must provide their response at least 7 days before the hearing for residential properties.

7. If unsatisfied with the RPTAC decision, file an appeal with the Superior Court of the District of Columbia by September 30 of the tax year or within 6 months after the RPTAC decision, whichever is later.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 112 Webster St NE is currently appraised by the county at $604,040. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $432. Applied to my home's 1,152 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $497,219. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
