How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Pueblo County Assessor's Office at (719) 583-6597 to verify the current year's appeal deadline and request a property tax appeal form to be mailed or emailed to you.
2. Collect evidence supporting your property value estimate including comparable sales, appraisals, photos of property condition, and any documentation showing why the assessment is incorrect.
3. File your protest by June 8, 2026 either in person at 215 W. 10th Street, Pueblo, CO 81003, by mail to the same address, or by email to beltran@pueblocounty.us with your property value estimate and supporting documentation.
4. The Assessor must mail you a Notice of Determination by the last working day of June 2026 with their decision on your protest.
5. If you disagree with the Assessor's determination or don't receive a Notice of Determination, submit a written appeal to the County Board of Equalization by July 15, 2026.
6. Within 30 days of the County Board of Equalization decision, you may appeal to either the Board of Assessment Appeals, binding arbitration, or District Court at 215 W. 10th Street, Pueblo, CO 81003.

Owner Name	Batch Test
Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 1901 Constitution Road, currently appraised at $701. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
