How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Early County Board of Tax Assessors at (229) 723-3088 to verify the current appeal deadline for your 2026 assessment notice and request Form PT-311A if needed.
2. Complete Form PT-311A (Appeal of Assessment) or write a letter stating your appeal grounds and your preferred appeal method: Board of Equalization, Hearing Officer, or Arbitration.
3. Collect evidence supporting your appeal such as comparable property sales, recent appraisal reports, photos of property condition issues, or repair estimates for any damage.
4. Mail your completed appeal form and supporting documents to Early County Board of Tax Assessors, 182 Court Square, Blakely, GA 39823, or deliver in person at their office.
5. If contacted by an appraiser from the Board of Assessors, schedule and attend a site visit or meeting to discuss your appeal and present your evidence.
6. Review the written decision from the Board of Assessors, which may increase, decrease, or maintain your property value as originally assessed.
7. If dissatisfied with the assessor's decision, your appeal will automatically be forwarded to the Early County Board of Equalization for a formal hearing.
8. If still dissatisfied after the Board of Equalization decision, file an appeal with Early County Superior Court within 30 days of the Board of Equalization's decision.

Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 71 South Abram Ford Road, currently appraised at $12,208. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
