How to File Your Appeal

1. Call Oakland County Equalization Division at (248) 858-0740 to request a property tax appeal form and confirm the current filing deadlines for 2026 appeals.
2. Examine your Notice of Assessment, Taxable Valuation, and Property Classification that was mailed in February 2026, noting the assessed value, taxable value, and scheduled dates for your local March Board of Review.
3. Collect recent comparable sales data, photos documenting your property's condition, or obtain a professional appraisal to support your claim that the assessed value exceeds 50% of true market value.
4. Contact your local city or township assessor before the March Board of Review to schedule an appointment, as you must first appeal to the March Board of Review before appealing to the Michigan Tax Tribunal.
5. Present your evidence at your scheduled March Board of Review appointment, which typically meets the Tuesday following the first Monday in March, or submit a written appeal if you cannot attend in person.
6. If the March Board of Review denies your appeal, file an appeal with the Michigan Tax Tribunal by May 31, 2026, using forms available at https://www.michigan.gov/taxtrib or by calling the tribunal for assistance.
7. Track your Michigan Tax Tribunal appeal status and prepare for either a Small Claims Division hearing in Oakland County or an Entire Tribunal hearing in Lansing, depending on your property value and case complexity.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 723 Brooks Avenue is currently appraised by the county at $245,440, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $122,720 at MI's 50% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $178. Applied to my home's 1,209 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $214,642. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
