How to File Your Appeal

1. Contact your local assessor to discuss your property value concerns informally before filing a formal appeal, as this is the required first step in organized townships.
2. File an appeal with your Local Board of Appeal and Equalization (LBAE) if you're in an organized city or township, which must be done before appealing to the County Board.
3. Call the St. Louis County Assessor's Office at (218) 726-2304 to request a property tax appeal form for the County Board of Appeal and Equalization.
4. Complete the appeal form by providing the current assessed value, your proposed value, and a detailed explanation of why you believe your property is overvalued, attaching supporting documentation.
5. A representative from the County Assessor's Department will call you to identify the basis for your appeal and schedule an interior field inspection of your property.
6. Present your appeal to the County Board of Appeal and Equalization either in person, remotely via WebEx, in writing, or through a representative, with 5-10 minutes for your presentation.
7. If your county appeal is denied, file an appeal with the Minnesota Tax Court by April 30 of the year following the assessment, contacting St. Louis County Court for forms and filing fees.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 19 Bianco Drive. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
