How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit Harris County Appraisal District's iFile system at https://hcad.org/hcad-online-services/ifile-protest/ to file your property tax protest online. You'll need your account number and iFile number from your Notice of Appraised Value. If this link doesn't work, call (713) 957-7800.

2. Complete and submit Form 50-132 (Notice of Protest) either online through iFile, by mailing it to Harris Central Appraisal District, P.O. Box 922004, Houston, TX 77292-2004 (must be postmarked by deadline), or drop off in person at 13013 Northwest Freeway, Houston, TX 77040 during business hours (8:00 AM - 5:00 PM, Monday-Friday).

3. Review the Evidence Packet included with this filing guide — it contains comparable sales data already prepared for your appeal. Bring it to your hearing.

4. Use the iFile system at https://hcad.org/hcad-online-services/ifile-protest/ to upload your supporting documentation including comparable sales, photos, and repair estimates. State your opinion of value based on your evidence. If unable to upload online, mail copies to Harris Central Appraisal District at P.O. Box 922004, Houston, TX 77292-2004.

5. Participate in your scheduled informal hearing with an HCAD appraiser to present your evidence and negotiate a potential settlement. You may receive an iSettle offer through HCAD's electronic system that allows you to resolve your protest without attending a formal hearing.

6. If informal settlement is unsuccessful, request a formal hearing before the Appraisal Review Board (ARB). Present your case with evidence to the board members who will make a final determination on your property's appraised value.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 1109 Lindale Street, currently appraised at $156,047. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
