How to File Your Appeal

1. Go to https://denvergov.org/Government/Agencies-Departments-Offices/Agencies-Departments-Offices-Directory/Department-of-Finance/Our-Divisions/Assessors-Office/View-and-Download-Forms to download the Real Property Appeal form, or call (720) 913-4162 to request the form by mail.
2. Review the Evidence Packet included with this filing guide — it contains comparable sales data already prepared for your appeal. Bring it to your hearing.
3. Fill out the Real Property Appeal form with your property details, assessment objections, and attach all supporting evidence including comparable sales data and any photographs or reports that support your claim.
4. File your completed appeal online, mail it to Denver County Assessor at 201 West Colfax, Dept. 406, Denver, CO 80202, or deliver it in person to the Assessment Division inside the Wellington E. Webb Municipal Office Building at 201 W. Colfax Avenue by June 8, 2026.
5. Wait for the assessor's written response called a Notice of Determination, which typically arrives by August 15th and will indicate whether your assessment was adjusted or if the original value stands.

6. If unsatisfied with the assessor's determination, file an appeal with the Denver County Board of Equalization within 30 days of receiving the Notice of Determination, following the instructions provided in that notice.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 5355 East Asbury Avenue, currently appraised at $634,500 with a taxable assessed value of $42,512 at CO's 6.7% assessment ratio. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
