How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit https://www.phila.gov/documents/property-assessment-appeal-documents-and-forms/ to download the Appeal Application form and instructions for Board of Revision of Taxes appeals.
2. Complete the required Appeal Application form including your 9-digit OPA property number, detailed reasons for appeal, and supporting evidence such as photographs of your property, comparable sales data, and any documentation of property errors.
3. Submit your completed Appeal Application to Board of Revision of Taxes at 601 Walnut Street, Suite 325 East, Philadelphia, PA 19106 by mail, in person Monday-Friday 8:30 AM-4:30 PM, or email PDF form to appealinquiry@phila.gov.
4. Prepare for your hearing after receiving notification from BRT approximately 45 to 90 days in advance, organizing all evidence including property photographs, comparable sales data, repair estimates, or professional appraisals if property value exceeds $1 million.
5. Attend your scheduled hearing before the Board of Revision of Taxes either in person or remotely via Zoom link provided in hearing notice, present your evidence and testimony regarding property valuation.
6. If BRT denies your appeal, you may file an appeal with Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas within the time period specified in the BRT decision for further review of your property assessment.

Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 1906 Plymouth Street, currently appraised at $182,800. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
