How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Johnson County Assessor's office at (317) 346-4701 to request a Form 130 (Taxpayer's Notice of Appeal) and confirm your specific appeal deadline since it is calculated as 45 days from when your Form 11 assessment notice was mailed.
2. Contact the Johnson County Assessor's Office at (317) 346-4701 for current filing information and forms to review your property assessment details and verify the accuracy of square footage, property features, and assessed value listed on your property record card.
3. Review the Evidence Packet included with this filing guide — it contains comparable sales data already prepared for your appeal. Bring it to your hearing.
4. Complete Form 130 (Taxpayer's Notice of Appeal) with detailed facts about why your assessment is incorrect, including the property address, parcel number, your contact information, and the value you believe is correct with supporting reasons.

5. Submit your completed Form 130 to the Johnson County Assessor's office at 86 W Court Street, Franklin, IN 46131 within 45 days of your Form 11 mailing date, either by mail, fax to (317) 736-7039, or in person during business hours Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

6. Participate in the informal hearing scheduled by the assessor's office where you will meet with assessment staff to review your property characteristics and present your evidence supporting your appeal.

7. If the informal hearing does not resolve your appeal, attend the Property Tax Assessment Board of Appeals (PTABOA) hearing where you will present your case to a three-member panel, with 30 days advance notice of the hearing date.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 836 Grant Court is currently appraised by the county at $246,700. However, I've gathered 15 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $169. Applied to my home's 1,329 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $224,995. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
