How to File Your Appeal

2. Review the Evidence Packet included with this filing guide — it contains comparable sales data already prepared for your appeal. Bring it to your hearing.
3. Fill out Form 3101 (Notice of Appeal Request for Board of Review) with detailed information about why you believe your property is over-assessed, including supporting documentation like recent appraisals or comparable sales.
4. Submit your completed Form 3101 to the Rapides Parish Council (serving as the Board of Review) within the designated filing period, including all supporting documentation such as recent property appraisals, photos of property conditions, and comparable property assessments.
5. Appear before the Rapides Parish Board of Review at the scheduled hearing date to present your case, bringing all original documentation and being prepared to explain why your assessment should be lowered.
6. If unsatisfied with the Board of Review decision, file Form 3103.A with the Louisiana Tax Commission within 30 days of receiving the Board's written decision by mailing to Louisiana Tax Commission, P.O. Box 66788, Baton Rouge, LA 70896.

Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 4109 Pisciotta Street. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
