How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Lancaster County Assessor's Office at (402) 441-7463 to obtain your property's preliminary 2026 valuation notice and discuss whether you have grounds for filing a protest.
2. Visit https://www.lancaster.ne.gov/408/Property-Valuation-Protests to access the property valuation protest form, or obtain it in person at the County Clerk's Office. If this link doesn't work, call (402) 441-7463 to request the form.
3. Complete the property valuation protest form with your current assessment information and evidence supporting your proposed lower value, then file it with the Lancaster County Clerk's Office between June 1 and June 30, 2026.
4. Attach supporting evidence to your protest form such as a professional appraisal, comparable property sales, or photographs showing property condition issues that may affect value.
5. Submit the required filing fee of $25 for residential properties, $50 for farm properties, or $100 for commercial properties along with your completed protest form to the County Clerk's Office.
6. Participate in your scheduled referee hearing in June or July 2026, which will typically be conducted by phone unless you request an in-person hearing at the Lincoln Firefighters Reception Hall at 241 Victory Lane, Lincoln, NE 68528.

7. Review the referee recommendation and Board of Equalization decision, which will be posted on the County Clerk's website by August 4, 2026, using your protest number and Parcel ID to access the information.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 4821 South 47th Street is currently appraised by the county at $270,300. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $213. Applied to my home's 1,224 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $260,408. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
