How to File Your Appeal

1. Contact the Natrona County Assessor's Office at (307) 235-9444 to schedule an initial property review and begin your appeal process within 30 days of your assessment notice date.
2. Schedule an in-person visit to the Assessor's Office at 200 N. Center, Room 140, Casper, WY 82601 to review your property characteristics and provide supporting documentation for your appeal.
3. If the initial review doesn't resolve your concerns, file a formal written appeal with the County Board of Equalization within 30 days of your assessment notice postmark date through the Assessor's Office.
4. Gather supporting evidence including recent appraisals, comparable property sales data, photographs of property conditions, and your estimated market value with detailed justification for the County Board of Equalization hearing.
5. Participate in the County Board of Equalization hearing where you will present first, followed by the Assessor, with opportunities for cross-examination and closing statements.
6. If you disagree with the County Board decision, file a written notice of appeal with the Wyoming State Board of Equalization within 30 days of the County Board's final decision or mailing date.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 2340 Sunset Boulevard, currently appraised at $17,085. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
