How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit the Oklahoma Tax Commission website at https://oklahoma.gov/content/dam/ok/en/tax/documents/forms/ad-valorem/current/974.pdf to download Form 974 (County Assessor Informal Protest), or obtain the form from the Tulsa County Assessor's Office at 500 S Denver Street, Room 205.
2. Complete Form 974 with all relevant facts and specific objections to the proposed values, and submit by mail to the Tulsa County Assessor at 500 S Denver Street, Room 205, Tulsa, OK 74103, or deliver in person.
3. The assessor will schedule an informal hearing which can be held in person at the assessor's office or by phone upon request, where you can present evidence and arguments for your assessment reduction.
4. The county assessor must issue a written decision within 7 calendar days of the informal hearing and provide a copy to you by regular or electronic mail with the date clearly marked.
5. If unsatisfied with the assessor's decision, file Form 976 (Formal Appeal County Board of Equalization) with the county clerk within 15 calendar days of the decision being mailed.
6. If the County Board of Equalization denies your appeal, you may appeal to the Tulsa County District Court within 30 days of the board's decision, and further to the Oklahoma Supreme Court if needed.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 8257 North 128th East Avenue, currently appraised at $244,200 with a taxable assessed value of $26,862 at OK's 11% assessment ratio. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
