How to File Your Appeal

1. Contact your individual town or city assessor's office since Carroll County has fourteen municipalities with their own assessors rather than a county-wide assessor, and request a property tax abatement application form.
2. Complete the local municipality's property tax abatement application form in writing with your original signature, including detailed evidence such as property descriptions, comparable sales data, and documentation proving your property is over-assessed.
3. Submit the original signed abatement application to your local town or city assessor's office by March 1, 2026 after receiving your final tax bill but before the deadline passes.
4. Allow the municipality to review your application and issue a decision by July 1, 2026, or the application will be automatically deemed denied if no response is received.
5. If your municipal application is denied or not acted upon, file an appeal with the NH Board of Tax and Land Appeals at 107 Pleasant Street, Johnson Hall, Concord, NH 03301 by September 1, 2026 with a $65 filing fee payable to 'Treasurer, State of NH'.

Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 9 Shaw View Rd, currently appraised at $698,000. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
