How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit https://assessmentappeals.dat.maryland.gov/ to file your appeal online using your assessment notice number and control number found on page 1 of your assessment notice, or call the Anne Arundel County Tax Office at (410) 222-1144 for assistance if the website doesn't work.

2. Contact the Maryland Department of Assessments and Taxation at (410) 767-1184 to request a free property worksheet and area sales listing to help prepare your appeal with comparable property information.

3. Choose one of four hearing options when filing your appeal: in-person hearing, telephone hearing, written appeal only, or video conference hearing with the Supervisor's level assessor.

4. Present your evidence at the informal Supervisor's level hearing (typically 15 minutes) with supporting documentation like recent appraisals, comparable sales data, or property condition issues.
5. If unsatisfied with the Supervisor's decision, file an appeal to the Anne Arundel County Property Tax Assessment Appeals Board within 30 days at 44 Calvert Street, Room 163, Annapolis, MD 21404-2700 or call (410) 974-2374.
6. Submit four copies of your presentation materials (three for the Board, one for the Assessor) including comparable sales, property condition evidence, and supporting documentation for your PTAAB hearing.
7. If the Property Tax Assessment Appeals Board denies your appeal, file an appeal to the Maryland Tax Court within 30 days of the PTAAB decision for a final administrative hearing.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 1114 Jasper Court is currently appraised by the county at $642,100. However, I've gathered 6 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $233. Applied to my home's 2,438 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $568,298. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
