How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit https://www.denvergov.org/property to search for your property and verify the assessed value, then click on the assessment protest or appeal button on your property record to begin the appeal process.
2. Download and complete the Real Property Appeal form from the Denver County Assessor's website at https://denvergov.org/Government/Agencies-Departments-Offices/Agencies-Departments-Offices-Directory/Department-of-Finance/Our-Divisions/Assessors-Office/View-and-Download-Forms or call (720) 913-4162 if the link doesn't work.
3. Collect evidence to support your appeal including recent sales data of comparable properties, photos showing property condition, independent appraisals if available, and documentation of any property defects or improvements.
4. Submit your completed Real Property Appeal form and supporting evidence by June 8, 2026 either online through the property search portal, by mail to 201 W. Colfax Avenue, Dept. 406, Denver, CO 80202, or in person at the Wellington E. Webb Municipal Office Building.

5. The Denver County Assessor's Office will review your appeal and send a Notice of Determination by August 15, 2026, stating whether your property value has been adjusted or if they maintain the original assessment.

6. If you disagree with the Notice of Determination, you have 30 days from the determination date to file an appeal with the Denver County Board of Equalization by calling (720) 913-4162 for filing instructions.

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 714 Albion Street, currently appraised at $630,300 with a taxable assessed value of $42,230 at CO's 6.7% assessment ratio. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
