How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit MyTax.DC.gov to file a First-Level Administrative Review Application online by April 1, 2026 (if April 1 falls on a weekend, the deadline extends to the next business day).
2. Collect supporting evidence including recent appraisals, photos, settlement statements, sales data for comparable properties, and assessment data, ensuring all documents include your property's Square, Suffix, and Lot (SSL) number.
3. Complete the Real Property Assessment Appeal form using information from your Notice of Proposed Assessment, specifying market value disputes, equalization issues, classification errors, or property damage as grounds for appeal.
4. Submit your completed appeal form with all supporting documentation through MyTax.DC.gov or call (202) 727-4829 to request paper forms, choosing written, phone, or in-person hearing format.

5. Wait for the Office of Tax and Revenue's first-level administrative decision, which will be mailed to you with specific instructions for second-level appeals if needed.

6. If your first-level appeal is denied, file a Real Property Assessments Appeal Form with the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission (RPTAC) within 45 days of receiving your first-level decision notice by visiting MyTax.DC.gov.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 112 Webster Street Northeast is currently appraised by the county at $604,040. However, I've gathered 4 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $432. Applied to my home's 1,152 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $497,219. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
