How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Newport County Assessor's Office at (401) 625-6709 and ask for a property tax appeal form to begin your appeal process.
2. Carefully review your Notice of Reassessment which includes your property's assessed value and compare it to similar properties in your area to determine if you are overassessed.
3. Submit your appeal application within ninety (90) days from the date the first tax payment is due, as this deadline cannot be extended or waived by the assessor for any reason.
4. Collect evidence that your property is overassessed, including recent appraisals, comparable sales data, photos of property conditions, and any documentation showing errors in your assessment.
5. The assessor has forty-five (45) days to review your appeal, render a decision and notify you, or you may proceed to the next step if no decision is made within this timeframe.
6. If still aggrieved, file an appeal to the local tax board of review within thirty (30) days after the assessor's decision, or within ninety (90) days if the assessor doesn't render a decision.

7. If your appeal is denied by the local tax board of review, you may appeal your Newport County tax assessment in Superior Court as a final recourse.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 22 Pachet Brook Road is currently appraised by the county at $920,000. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $189. Applied to my home's 4,407 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $832,594. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
