How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Canadian County Assessor's Office at (405) 262-1070 to request the County Assessor Informal Protest Form 974 and ask for current appeal procedures and deadlines specific to your property type and assessment notice.
2. Fill out the County Assessor Informal Protest Form 974 completely, including property details, your objections to the assessed value, and supporting evidence such as comparable property sales or appraisal information.
3. File your completed Form 974 with the Canadian County Assessor's Office at 201 North Choctaw, El Reno, OK 73036 within 30 calendar days from the date your valuation notice was mailed, or by the first Monday in April if no increase notice was received.
4. Attend the informal hearing scheduled by the assessor's office within seven days of filing your protest, bringing all supporting documentation including comparable sales, photographs, and any professional appraisals.
5. If dissatisfied with the assessor's decision, file a Formal Appeal County Board of Equalization Form 976 within 15 calendar days of the date the assessor's decision was mailed, submitting one copy to the assessor and one to the County Board of Equalization.

6. Attend the County Board of Equalization hearing as scheduled, presenting your case with evidence to support your position that the property is overvalued, with all proceedings must be completed by May 31, 2026.

7. If still unsatisfied with the Board of Equalization decision, appeal to Canadian County District Court within 30 days of receiving the board's written decision.

Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 1732 Settlers Crossing Boulevard, currently appraised at $197,000 with a taxable assessed value of $21,670 at OK's 11% assessment ratio. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
