How to File Your Appeal

1. Visit MyTax.DC.gov to file your first-level administrative review application electronically, which must be submitted on or before April 1, 2026. If this link doesn't work, call (202) 727-4829.
2. Collect meaningful supporting documentation including recent appraisals, comparable property sales data, photographs of property damage or condition issues, and any settlement statements to support your claim that the assessment is incorrect.
3. Complete the First-Level Administrative Review Application on MyTax.DC.gov, specifying whether you want an in-person, telephone, or written hearing with the assessor, and attach all supporting evidence.
4. After submitting your first-level appeal, you will receive a decision notice from the Office of Tax and Revenue within approximately 30-45 days of your hearing or submission.
5. If your first-level appeal is denied, file a second-level appeal with the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission (RPTAC) within 45 days of receiving your administrative appeal decision notice at MyTax.DC.gov.
6. Complete the Real Property Assessments Appeal form on MyTax.DC.gov, and if appealing a commercial property assessment, also complete Schedule A - Property Information Sheet with all supporting evidence.

7. Attend your scheduled hearing before the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission, choosing either an in-person hearing, telephone hearing, or non-appearance review of the written record.

8. If unsatisfied with the RPTAC decision, you may appeal to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia using the information provided on your RPTAC Decision Notice.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 16 Anacostia Rd NE is currently appraised by the county at $303,530. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $252. Applied to my home's 992 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $249,744. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
