How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Payette County Assessor's Office at (208) 642-6012 to request a property tax appeal form and confirm the current filing deadline for 2026 appeals.
2. Examine your 2026 property assessment notice for your current assessed value and compare it to similar properties in your neighborhood to determine if an appeal is warranted.
3. Fill out the property tax appeal form completely, including your parcel number (found at the top of your tax bill), property description, and your reasons for appealing the assessment.
4. Collect documentation to support your appeal, including recent appraisals, photographs of property conditions, sales data of comparable properties, or evidence of declining property values in your area.

5. File your completed appeal form and supporting documentation at the Payette County Assessor's Office at 1130 3rd Ave. N., Room 102, Payette, ID 83661, or mail it to ensure receipt before the deadline.
6. Prepare to present your case at the Board of Equalization hearing if scheduled, bringing all original documents and evidence to support your property value claim.
7. Wait for the Board of Equalization's written decision on your appeal, which will indicate whether your assessment has been adjusted or if you need to pursue further appeals.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 575 N 18th St is currently appraised by the county at $375,599. However, I've gathered 3 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $197. Applied to my home's 1,733 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $340,829. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
