How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Douglas County Board of Equalization office at (402) 444-6510 between 8:30 AM - 4:30 PM, Monday through Friday to request appeal forms and get current filing information.
2. File your real property valuation protest with the Douglas County Board of Equalization during the filing window which begins June 1, 2026, either online at Contact the Douglas County Assessor's Office at (402) 444-6510 for current filing information and forms or by mail to the BOE office.
3. Submit additional supporting documentation by June 30, 2026, or by the time of your referee appointment if one is scheduled, whichever occurs later, including photos with parcel ID written on the back.
4. If you requested an appointment with a referee, attend your scheduled hearing to present your case and evidence for why your property valuation should be lowered.
5. Wait for the Board of Equalization to mail your decision notice by August 12, 2026, which will state whether your appeal was approved and any valuation changes made.

6. If denied by the BOE, file an appeal with the Nebraska Tax Equalization and Review Commission by September 10, 2026, using forms from https://terc.nebraska.gov and paying the required filing fee.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 18417 Grant St is currently appraised by the county at $626,200. However, I've gathered 7 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $140. Applied to my home's 2,864 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $402,240. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
