How to File Your Appeal

1. Go to the Franklin County Auditor's Board of Revision website at www.franklincountyauditor.com and navigate to the Board of Revision section to access filing instructions and forms for your property tax appeal.
2. Contact the Franklin County Board of Revision at (614) 525-3913 for questions about the appeal process, to schedule a hearing, or email BOR@franklincountyohio.gov for guidance on filing your complaint.
3. Choose the correct Board of Revision complaint form based on your property type: most residential homes use the standard form, while manufactured or mobile homes require a separate form available on the website.

4. Collect documentation to support your appeal including recent property appraisal, photos showing property condition or damage, evidence of incorrect square footage, or sales data for comparable properties in your neighborhood.

5. Fill out all required fields on the Board of Revision complaint form and submit it either online through the auditor's website or by mailing the printed form to Franklin County Auditor, 373 S High St, 21st Floor, Columbus, OH 43215.

6. Participate in either formal Board of Revision hearing (for changes over $50,000) or informal mediation program (for changes under $50,000) where you will present your evidence to support your requested property value reduction.

7. Expect to receive the Board of Revision's decision within approximately six months of filing, and if approved, your property value and subsequent tax bills will be adjusted accordingly for the tax year in question.

If You're Called to a Hearing

Bring your Evidence Packet. You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Keep it simple and focus on the comparable sales:

> "Thank you for hearing my appeal. My property at 4415 Saint Ann Ln is currently appraised by the county at $181,600, resulting in a taxable assessed value of $63,560 at OH's 35% assessment ratio. However, I've gathered 20 recent sales of similar homes in the area. The 25th percentile price per square foot of these comparable properties is $125. Applied to my home's 889 square feet, this supports a market value of approximately $110,971. I've included addresses, sale prices, and details for each comparable in my evidence packet. I respectfully request the Board adjust my assessment to reflect actual market conditions."

Tips: Be polite and factual. Focus only on whether your property's value is correct compared to similar homes that recently sold.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
