How to File Your Appeal

1. Call the Williamsburg County Assessor's Office at (843) 355-9321, ext. 5500 to request a property tax appeal form and inquire about the current deadline for filing an appeal.
2. Collect evidence that your property is overassessed, including recent appraisals, comparable property sales in your neighborhood, photographs of property condition, and any relevant documentation showing market value.
3. Submit your written objection to the Assessor's Office at 201 W Main Street, Office 120, Kingstree, SC 29556, including your completed appeal form and all supporting documentation.
4. Participate in the scheduled hearing with the Assessor, Deputy Assessor, or staff appraiser to discuss your reasons for appeal and present your evidence of overassessment.
5. Wait for the Assessor's Office to send you a letter describing their decision and any appraisal changes, which typically arrives within 30 days of your hearing.
6. If you disagree with the Assessor's decision, file a written objection with the Board of Assessment Appeals within 30 days of receiving the Assessor's decision letter.
7. Present your case at the Board of Assessment Appeals hearing, after which the Board will notify you in writing of their final decision regarding your property value appeal.
8. If still unsatisfied after the Board hearing, you may file a written appeal with the Administrative Law Court Division in Columbia, SC within the timeframe specified in the Board's decision letter.

Owner Name	Alex Morgan
Reason for Appeal	Request for review of assessed value

If You're Called to a Hearing

You'll have 2–3 minutes to make your case. Bring any supporting documents — appraisals, contractor estimates, or photos of your property's condition:

> "Thank you for hearing my request. I'd like to request a review of my property's assessed value at 697 Patty Rd, currently appraised at $3,330. I believe the current assessment may not reflect my property's condition and current market conditions in this area. Comparable sales data for properties like mine is limited, which means both this assessment and any market estimate carry significant uncertainty. I've brought supporting documentation for the Board's review and respectfully request that my assessment be reconsidered."

Tips: Be polite and factual. If you have a recent appraisal, contractor estimate, or photos showing property condition issues, present them. Focus on why the assessed value may not reflect your property's actual condition and market.

Note: Filing requirements may change. We recommend confirming all deadlines, forms, and contact information with your county assessor's office before submitting your appeal.
